We believe that individual and community action can transform society's throw-away ethic into environmental stewardship, and the best way to change a culture of waste is to educate and engage children, motivating them and their families to protect the environment. Eco-Cycle's Green Star Schools program makes Zero Waste an integral part of the daily school routine for students and teachers at Longmont public schools. The program aims to change student behavior and reduce school waste through environmental education, field trips, resource conservation, recycling, and composting.

How will funds be used?: We seek support to make our Growing Green farm field trip accessible to under-resourced schools in Longmont. Students learn the value of diverting food from landfills through composting, which supports healthy soils and local farmers.

Windhorse Guild DBA Mindful Works

Requested: $ 2,000

Mission: Mindful Works is an innovative, unique social enterprise which provides job-driven training and real employment opportunities for those in recovery from serious mental illness. Apprentices (trainees) are taught the responsibilities of holding a job: getting to work on time, appropriate dress, endurance, attention to detail and how to work in a social setting. Working with staff, interns and volunteers builds self-confidence, a sense of community and belonging for apprentices. Since we began in 2014, we have concentrated on making high quality, handcrafted soft goods (mindful-works.org), we are expanding our operation to include baked goods for both humans and dogs. This will provide us with the opportunity to train even more apprentices.

How will funds be used?: As we move into making baked goods, we seek support for a standup mixer. We have access to a commercial kitchen, but it doesn't have a standup mixer needed to make large quantities of dough. Funding would allow us to move forward with this venture.
